Harry L. Ford of Burlington, a former resident of Barre, returned to his home this morning, after passing a few days in the city on business.

Atty. S. Hollister Jackson is in Burlington, where he was summoned by the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Parkyn Jackson, which occurred at noon yesterday.

Miss Edna Newell arrived in the city yesterday from her home in Burlington and will visit friends and relatives in Barre and East Barre during the next two weeks.

Mrs. Henry Taylor of Bellville, N. J., arrived in the city last evening, and will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Daniel, and other relatives in the city for two weeks.

Among the Plainfield visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were: Mrs. Mina Atchinson, Mrs. Fred Bruffee, Miss Maude Batchelder, Mrs. Alma Paris, Mrs. John Parks, Mrs. Ola Martin, Mrs. L. F. Fortney, John Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Townsend.

Crestas Regas, manager of the Mascott Candy Kitchen, returned to Barre this morning after spending yesterday in Burlington. Mr. Regas visited Mr. Mascott, who is in the Mary Fletcher hospital, and brings to Barre, tidings of the great improvement. It is thought by the doctors, that he may be moved to his home in this city within a few weeks.

At the prayer service to-night at the Baptist church, the pastor will give a short report of the meetings of the state convention which were held at Chester last week. To-morrow afternoon at the church there will be a conference, led by Dr. W. A. Davidson, on the work of the five-year program committee. In the evening Dr. Braker of Burlington will speak. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

A number of south-end people were pleasantly entertained at the home of Archie Adams of South Main street last evening, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. An impromptu 500 tournament was one of the enjoyable features of the gathering. Mr. Adams was the recipient of a handsome reminder of his anniversary. Refreshments were served before the guests were permitted to depart.

Spaulding's football eleven will know no more of Tom Nichols, one of its sterling men, for a time as the result of a painful injury which the team's right guard sustained in practice last night. To-day Nichols is about on crutches. In a scrimmage toward the end of the practice session he collided with John Tomasi and received a knee sprain. Although the injury is not of a serious nature, it will keep him out of the game for a fortnight, at least. The team realizes his loss more keenly for the reason that the accident occurred almost on the eve of the eleven's important contest with St. Albans high school, which is to be staged at the Gospel village campus Saturday afternoon. Coach Brown has several substitutes whom he is trying out for the hole in the line.

Guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning included the following people: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Addison and son of New York, Judge Frank L. Fish of Vergennes, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lane of Burlington, J. C. Hood of Lowell, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meldon of Burlington, A. H. Holbrook of Keene, N. H., B. F. St. Clair of Plymouth, N. H., H. C. Belcher of Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Groat of Burlington, William McCormack of Pittsford, W. T. Holland of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Caven of St. Johnsbury, C. C. Hamblett of White River Junction, Charles Sotier and Mr. Dazee of Montreal, P. Q., Dr. C. A. Provost and Dr. Bachand of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Burnett of Brattleboro, George Richardson of Brattleboro, D. R. Mowry of Greenfield, Mass., and B. E. Beauregard of Springfield.
